

horned grebe
takeoff ©
Andrew Reding

Upcoming Events

Saturday May 17

7:45/8:15 am

Field Trip: Spring Migration at Fort Flagler

We will meet at the sewage pond parking lot at 8:15 a.m. to walk the forest trails listening and looking for spring warblers, and other passerines. Those interested in carpooling from Port Townsend should meet at the Park and Ride near Safeway by 7:45 a.m. I'll meet everyone at the sewage pond parking lot. Once entering Fort Flagler drive to the four way stop signs. Turn right following the short road to the parking lot. Paula Vanderheul, Trip Leader: 360-379-8564 or pvanderheul@gmail.com.

Sunday May 25 & June 29

9 am - noon

Work Party: Kah Tai Lagoon
Nature Park

Join us anytime between 9 am and noon. We will pull Scots Broom and pick up trash. Park at the lot near the bathrooms and walk east toward the Benedict Street entrance southeast of the small pond. Look for Ron's white Chevy pick-up with the bright green volunteer sign. Wear work clothes and bring work gloves. Bring pruners if you have

Kah Tai Lagoon Nature Park Bird Survey 2009 - 2011

Ruddy Duck © David Gluckman

Port Townsend, Washington
July 2012
<http://www.admiraltyaudubon.org/>

Click above to download Bird
Survey

Local Photography

kingfisher © Andrew Reding

Bob Whitney

David Gluckman

Corvids in Spring

Thurs May 15 at 7pm
Port Townsend
Community Center
Lawrence and Tyler

Ken Wiersema will discuss Corvid family characteristics, lifestyle, strength, intelligence, and vulnerabilities and explore connections with humans in tales, artwork, history, and shared living space.

The focus will be on Pacific Northwest birds we regularly see in this corner of Puget Sound, and on encouraging folks to watch and enjoy these smart & fascinating birds that share our habitat. For more information contact 385-0307.

Andrew Reding

Learn about the birds of Washington State online: BirdWeb them. Water, tea, cookies, fruit, garbage bags and Scots Broom pullers will be provided. Hope to see you there. For more information contact 385-0307 or rosemarysikes@olympus.net.

News

Port transfers title to remaining portion of Kah Tai Nature Park to city: Peninsula Daily News.
"Like" us on our Facebook Page, <https://www.facebook.com/admiraltyaudubon>

Community leaders learn about

click to e-mail us

Admiralty Audubon Society
PO Box 666
Port Townsend, WA 98368
360-385-0307

AAS Kah Tai bird diversity report.
Full story: Peninsula Daily News.

City and Port strike deal that will enhance and preserve Kah Tai Lagoon Nature Park. Full Story: Peninsula Daily News, The Leader.

Eleanor Stopps founded our Admiralty Audubon Chapter in 1977. She was also responsible for the establishment of Protection Island National Wildlife Refuge. This remarkable woman, a force of nature, passed away on April 25, age 92. Full Story. AAS has set up a memorial fund to commission a sculpture in Eleanor's honor. Click here for details.

Federal officials uphold Kah Tai park boundary, potentially sinking aquatic center plan. Full Story

Aquatic center unlikely at Kah Tai park; state officials recommend preservation. For more, click here

Website design and management by
Andrew Reding

Olympic Loop Birding Trail map available for purchase at Sport Townsend, 1044 Water St, PT

Click Here for Current Admiralty Audubon Pipings Newsletter

Voting Scorecards:
League of Conservation Voters

Sierra Club
